Larkin wrote a number of other books including commentaries on Daniel and Revelation, which also contain intricate charts and drawings. Tim, HIS "HEAD AND HIS HAIR." His "Head" and "Hair" were "WHITE LIKE WOOL," as "WHITE AS SNOW." Here there is a correspondence to the "Snow White Wig" worn by English judges. 4. (His background in engineering and drafting are evident in his drawings.) Larkin initially designed these drawings on a very large scale for his own use in the pulpit, but they became so popular that he felt compelled to publish them in book form. Question Answer Clarence Larkin (1850-1924) was a Baptist minister and publisher of Bible study materials from the dispensational perspective. HIS VOICE. This is seen in that He was girded about the breasts, and not around the waist. "His Eyes were a FLAME OF FIRE." Those eyes that had often been dimmed with human tears, and that wept at the grave of LAZARUS, are here pictured as burning with an "OMNISCIENT FLAME." How often when on the earth those eyes read the inner-most thoughts of men, and even soldiers quailed before His soul penetrating gaze, so when He sits as the Judge of men all things will be NAKED and OPEN before Him. What made his teaching unique was the use of detailed, meticulous drawings and charts. While Jesus is now a High Priest in heaven, John did not see Him engaged in any High Priestly work. Clarence Larkin was born in Chester, Pennsylvania. The Vision that John saw was that of the GLORIFIED "SON OF MAN." When Jesus ascended He took up with Him His HUMANITY, and we now have in the Glory the MAN Christ Jesus. HIS EYES. Two years later he was ordained as a Baptist minister, and he left his business ventures for full-time ministry. "His Voice as the SOUND OF MANY WATERS." When Jesus was on the earth He was, as the "Son of Man," a PROPHET, now as the "Son of Man" in Glory He is a Priest, and when He comes again it will be as the "Son of Man" to reign as KING. The High Priest was girded around the waist, signifying service, but a girdle or sash over the shoulder and around the breasts is an insignia of the Magisterial Office. Although he felt called into ministry, he did not seem to have any opportunities to enter the ministry, so he took a job at a bank. While He was clothed in a High Priestly robe, there was no mitre upon His head, nor Kingly Crown. Larkin went on to become a mechanical engineer, draftsman, and teacher of the blind—jobs in which he cultivated his ability for careful description. "His Feet like unto fine BRASS, as if they BURNED IN A FURNACE." In that day those feet that trod the Via Dolorosa of suffering will be like unto INCANDESCENT BRASS, that shall tread and crush Antichrist and Satan when He comes to "Tread the WINE-PRESS of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God." Rev. 1. 2. At age 32, Larkin left the Episcopalian church and became a Baptist after studying the Scripture and coming to the conclusion that the Baptist position on baptism was more biblical than the Episcopalian one. Return to: Questions about Church History Who was Clarence Larkin? This description of Christ reminds us of Daniel's vision of the "ANCIENT OF DAYS," "whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the PURE WOOL." Dan. The description of Him is more that of a JUDGE. During the last few years of Larkin's life, his works became so popular that he left the pastorate to devote all his time to writing. Larkin, (1921) (page images at Hathitrust; US access only) Larkin, Clarence, 1850-1924: The spirit world / (Philadelphia : Rev. 7:13, he distinguishes between the "Son of Man" and the "Ancient of Days," but in verses 9 and 22 he associates the "Ancient of Days" with a "Throne of Judgment," and as God the Father has committed all judgment to the Son (John 5:22), and the Father and the Son are one, the title "Ancient of Days" is used interchangeably. 7:9. Clarence Larkin's first pastorate was in Kennett Square, Pennsylvania, and his second, where he spent twenty years in ministry, was in Fox Chase, Pennsylvania. Daniel refers three times to the "Ancient of Days." In Chap. 3. 7:9-10), which is not until after the Rapture of the Church, we have here additional corroborative proof that John's Vision belongs to the "Day of the Lord." The "White Hair" of the Son of Man refers to His ANTIQUITY, to His patriarchal dignity, not that His hair was made white by age, for the Eternal never grows old, but it bespeaks wisdom and experience, and the venerableness of His character. And as the title "Ancient of Days" is applied to the "Son of Man" (Christ) at the time He assumes the Judgeship (Dan. THE VISION OF THE GLORIFIED SON OF MAN. Health problems forced him out of teaching. He came to faith in Christ at age 19 in the Episcopal Church. 2.5. It was in Fox Chase that Larkin began teaching the Bible from a dispensational perspective. This is confirmatory evidence that John was transported into the "Day of the Lord," and that his vision of Christ is as Christ shall appear after His High Priestly work is finished and before He assumes His Kingly Office. 19:15. Clarence Larkin Est., Erwin W. Clarence Larkin Est., 1920) (page images at Hathitrust) Larkin, Clarence, 1850-1924: Rightly dividing the Word, (Fox Chase, Philadelphia, Pa., C. HIS FEET. At this point he was not a premillennialist, but later, after much study, he came to the conclusion that Christ will return prior to setting up His kingdom. The book Dispensational Truth: God's Plan and Purpose for the Ages (1918), containing over 115 charts and other illustrations, is considered a classic and continues to be reprinted today. After some recovery, he went into manufacturing, still feeling the call to ministry.

Jun 14, 2004 - The threefold nature of man might be illustrated in several ways. Dr. Clarence Larkin uses three circles (Rightly Dividing The Word, page 86). The outer circle stands for the body of man, the middle circle for the soul, and the inner for the spirit. At this point it will be well to quote a portion from Dr. Larkin's book: Clarence "Tom" Ashley (September 29, 1895 - June 2, 1967) was an American musician and singer, who played the clawhammer banjo and the guitar. He began performing at medicine shows in the Southern Appalachian region as early as 1911, and gained initial fame during the late 1920s as both a solo recording artist and as a member of various string bands. ...
